

hell out of an old man on Christmas eve, and then after slapping him three times, she then said, I'll show you and she shot him with Thorazine which makes you somewhat like a robot. And she is still at that nursing home and she has had her hearings and every time you report a nursing home for something, Senator Hall, all they do is say, okay, we'll give you 30 days to clean up these 10 things. In 30 days they go back and they say, well, you cleaned up one; we'll give you another 30 days to do the other nine. And it goes on and on and on until it is time that they get inspected again for another complaint. So very seriously, why don't you make your amendment that the Department of Revenue will use the same rules and regulations as the Department of Health does when they suspend, or, God, I don't know when they have ever suspended anybody, can't remember. I think once they put somebody in a receivership, but I can't remember very many that they have done that to, so, Senator Hall, I will yield the rest of my time to you, Senator Hall, if you would like it. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Hall, would you like the remainder of her time, two and a half minutes?

SENATOR HALL: Mr. President, I appreciate Senator Higgins' remarks. I would...are there other lights? Mr. President, are there other lights?

PRESIDENT: Yes, one, Senator.

SENATOR HALL: I would just wait and close. I appreciate Senator Higgins' offer but I would just wait and close on the issue and let others speak.

PRESIDENT: Okay. Very good, thank you. May I introduce...Senator Morehead, you're the last speaker, but may I introduce a guest of Senator Korshoj, please. Under the south balcony, we have Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Coneely from Decatur, Nebraska. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you for visiting us today. Senator Morehead, please.

SENATOR MOREHEAD: Let me tell you what happened. We had somebody that was bringing in illegal pickle cards, illegal pickle cards, bringing them into the state. The Department of Revenue finally identified that this person was bringing in blatantly illegal pickle cards and then this individual came back and said, oh gee, guys, I'm using legal pickle cards now,
